What is covered?

The summary table on page 3 provides an overview of your policy terms. For full details please read the policy wording.

Employment disputes

Employment law changes constantly and keeping on top of it can be a full-time job. If you have a dispute with an employee it can be stressful, time-consuming and very costly to both your finances and reputation. We will pay the legal costs of defending your business if an employee brings a claim against you provided that there is a reasonable prospect of your defence being successful

Employment restrictive covenants

If your employee breaks a clause in their contract that prevents them from, for example, poaching clients or staff or setting up their own business nearby, our legal experts can help with:

- For a fixed fee of £400 (+VAT) per employee, a strongly worded letter to the ex-employee plus brief written advice on the likely success of a claim against them.
- For a highly competitive fee, support during any court action and claim for damages.

If you would like more information on this service please call 01244 687 600 between 9am and 5pm weekdays.

Tax disputes

No business welcomes an unexpected visit from the taxman and any investigation by HMRC can be lengthy and expensive. Our tax advisors will represent your business if you are investigated or where a dispute arises following a compliance check by HMRC.

Important information

Important conditions

You must always contact us first before appointing a solicitor or accountant to act for you. If you fail to do this you may prejudice your position and the insurer will not pay costs that they would not have agreed to pay under the terms of your policy.

When we receive your claim, we will have it assessed for reasonable prospects of success. Provided that the event is covered by the policy and your claim is more likely than not to succeed, we will help you under the terms of your policy.

We will recommend mediation to resolve your dispute where appropriate or we will appoint a solicitor, accountant or other suitable expert to act for you. The members of our panel are carefully selected based on their expertise and work under strict service standards. They are also audited regularly to ensure they provide the best possible service to our customers.

What happens if the insurer cannot meet its liabilities?

The insurer is covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation of up to 90% of the cost of your claim in the unlikely event that the insurer cannot meet its obligations. Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available at www.fscs.org.uk.

The tables on the next page show a summary of cover. For full terms and conditions of the policy, please read the policy wording.
